WELSBACH

Welsbach Light is the combination of the wonderful Welsbach Kern Gas Burner with Mantles of British manufacture.
Only in this way do you obtain the light that is the lightest, softest and cheapest. There is no other burner, except the Welsbach Kern No. 3, which will give you a 75 candle power light with a gas consumption of only 3 ft. per hour.

Every genuine British-made Welsbach burner and mantle bears the Registered Trade Mark "AUR."

Welsbach Light has been adapted to every conceivable purpose from tiny table lights to the Storm-proof Self-Intensifying Lamps of 600 candle Power. It is self-contained, no special mains or clumsy apparatus required.

All who desire more light at less cost should therefore write for particulars and catalogue of Welsbach Light to the Sole Agents in China of the Welsbach

DUTCH SHIPPING COMPANIES.

Eager for Trade.

(From Our Correspondent.)
LONDON, April 7.

The Dutch shipping lines are very active just now. Not only has a line been formed to cut into the trade of the North German line on the Eastern route, but the Holland South American Line has been reorganised and strengthened by State subsidies, so as to be better able to compete with the Germans on the Brazil and River Plate route. Arrangements have been made with the French, Belgian and Dutch railway lines for advantageous terms in order that business may if possible be drawn from the German to the Dutch ports, to support these new and improved shipping enterprises.

THE OPIUM QUESTION.

Scepticism at Home.

The promulgation of further edicts against the opium habit in China would seem to indicate that the spirit which initiated the edicts of 1903 is still at work says the "L. and O. Express." It is the inequalities of the performances according to the vigour or apathy of the local officials that gives cause for anxiety to those who wish well to China in her crusade. The correspondent of "The Times" at Shanghai in an interesting letter on the subject points out that respectable Chinese are now coming to regard opium smoking in public as "bad form." If public opinion in this way enforces the edicts, it will be a great factor.
There is evidence of a genuine moral awakening in this respect, which may be ascribed in no small degree to the reflex influence of the Imperial decrees.
If, instead of opium being, as it has been the habit hitherto, given as a form of hospitality it is "bad form" to do so, something will have been achieved, though it will scarcely be matter for congratulation if the alternative hospitality in future takes the form of strong drink.
It is to be hoped that in this matter of the opium habit China is not getting out of the frying-pan into the fire. Already from Kansuh a missionary, quoted in the report transmitted by Sir John Jordan, stated that "the high price of opium has induced people to take to drink," whilst the morphine habit in the form of injection is one that needs to be carefully watched. The real test in the whole matter as regards the extirpation of the opium habit is the extent of the reduction of the area under poppy growth. China, we have often had occasion to remark, is a opium prone to believing magnificence, which sadly fall away in the practice. The edicts show us the prospects truly enough, though we have yet to seek the action in entire accordance therewith. In some districts we do not doubt that the edict is made to run, but we feel much doubt about many other localities.

POLITICS AND THE GUN.

A man who is a friend of ex-President Cleveland tells a good story in connection with a hunting trip that Cleveland once took through the Adirondack region.
It appears that the former President had as his guide an eccentric character named Chick Bruce. Chick was entirely without awe in the presence of distinguished persons; so when he observed the President holding the gun in what seemed to be a specially careless fashion, the woodman expressed himself rather freely.
"Here," he exclaimed, "what are ye doin', sir, pointin' your gun at yourself in that way?"
Cleveland wisely inquired the cause of the admonition.
"What's the matter?" repeated the guide indignantly. "Don't you let the muzzle of that gun ever point in your own direction when I'm around! Suppose the blamed thing should go off! That would put me in a nice fix, wouldn't it?—me a black Republican, and you a Democrat."

Commenting on the general decline in the trade returns for the month of March, a home paper points out that there was a big decrease in the exports of cotton yarn and twist. The Straits Settlements alone showed a slight increase, while China's purchases fell over 350,000 lbs.; and those of Japan over 70,000. Turning to the cotton piece goods fixtures, a considerable shrinkage is also shown, there being a decrease of 1,000,000 yards each in the case of the Dutch East India and the Straits Settlements.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

It is reported that the Dai Lai Lam contemplates the issue of a newspaper, and has placed an order for a private machine in France.

The Japanese authorities have prohibited the sale of Moliere's works on the ground that they are immoral. "Tokyo Press" continues publication.

The Japanese Foreign Department has issued a warning to the merchants concerned expressing its disapproval of the Cotton Spinner's Association's prize coupon system.

Osman Digna, who was a lieutenant of the Khali of the Sudan, and who is now imprisoned at Danietta, has gone mad.

He declares that the English are the scourge of God, and must be obeyed by Moslems.

Raiders for the German cruiser squadron in the Far East numbering some 1,100 men were to leave Bremen on April 25 by the North German Lloyd s.s.

Rhein. The vessel is due at Hongkong on June 1, at Wasing on June 3, and at Tientsin on June 7.

The trouble at the French lumber works in the Miyazaki province was due to rioting on the part of the employees.

Some buildings were destroyed, but the pickets arrived promptly on the scene and order was restored. The first report of the number of casualties was exaggerated.

The case of the three Japanese charged with assaulting a Chinese employee of the U.S. Consulate at Mulien has been decided in the Japanese Consular Court. The postman, named Kotaro Hashimoto, was sentenced to one month's major imprisonment, N. Kumasaki, a coal dealer, to a fine of ¥1.50 and K. Hoshiki, an employee of the South Manchurian Railway Co., to an imprisonment of eleven days.

Visitors to Macao are referred to the Macao Hotel. An advertisement on page 9 sets forth a new and very liberal scale of summer rates, and under the one of the popular proprietors Mr. W. F. Fagney, visitors can be assured of comfort and attention.

The weekend rates are particularly attractive and many in Hongkong who want a week-end in fresh air will no doubt take advantage of them. Mr. Farmer is endeavouring to keep abreast of the times, and is to be commended.

The "London Gazette" contains an Order in Council authorizing the payment of "climate allowances" to officers and men employed in ships in the China waters to compensate them for the discomfort involved in this service during the months of June, July, August, and September, and this payment, at the following rates, is to have retrospective effect from April 1, 1907.—8s. a day to each warrant officer, and 6d. a day to each warrant officer, and 6d. a day to

each warrant officer, and 6d. a day to

THE ZULU KING.

A Hamane Order.

LONDON, May 27.
At the trial of Dinizulu at Pietermaritzburg, yesterday, Daniels, the chief's ex-secretary, testified that in 1902 Dinizulu summoned the chiefs and headmen from all parts of Natal to Zululand, and they formally installed him as king. During the late rebellion Dinizulu gave orders that women and children must not be killed.

PLAGUE IN VENEZUELA.

Dying Found Everywhere.

LONDON, April 21.
The Washington correspondent of the "Daily Chronicle" telegraphs that the official advice state that La Guayra, the chief seaport of Venezuela, is stricken with a plague.
The hospitals are filled with scores of people, and dying are to be found everywhere in the town.
Whether the plague is bubonic is unknown, owing to a censorship of news from La Guayra.

A few packages of early picked Kosum passed through Kiliang on the 5th instant and were shipped off to Hankow the same day, says the "N. C. Daily News." Buying in the country up to that date had been very light owing to the continued cold and wet weather, but later advice are that the country prices are of excellent quality.
It is expected that the supply of common tea from the Hankow district will be 100,000 half chests in excess of last season. Tea men are not likely to offer their teas in Hankow until the arrival of the Chun-se in bulk, which will not be the 15th instant.
